

PSED and Communication and Language

- Show and tell (topic based)
- Talking about special events using correct tenses
- Following instructions
- Answering 'why' and 'how' related questions
- Jigsaw PSHE

Expressive Arts and Design

- Observational drawings of sea creatures
- Junk modelling
(Skill- select appropriate resources and adapt work where necessary)
- Dancing and moving in response to different types of music.

Topic and Key Questions Learning

Topic this half term is Under the Sea

What can we find in our oceans? How can you help look after our sea creatures in the ocean? Can you name some of the oceans?

Final outcomes for the half term

During our topic 'Under the Sea' children will explore and investigate human impact on our oceans. How climate change is affecting our world. They will also look at different sea creatures and their habitats.

Physical development

- Ball skills
- Using apparatus
- Skipping
- Sports day activities

Understanding the world

- Fact finding using internet and books
- Looking at similarities and differences
- Investigating materials
- Floating and sinking

Literacy

- Fact finding (non-fiction books) writing about under the sea
- Handwriting-presentation and letter formation
- Punctuation- capital letters, full stops and finger spaces.
- Descriptive writing
- Comprehension
- Alliteration and rhyming words
- Writing short narratives using more than one syllable words
- Using connectives
- Spellings

Maths

- Subtraction
- Creating numbers to 10 using different amounts
- Shapes - Finding a match, replicating shapes, tangrams
- Doubling
- Sharing a amount equally
- Identifying odd and even numbers
- Positional language
- Ordering numbers